The image displays a collection of educational materials for board games, laid out on a marble background. At the top left is a 'Reading Passage' titled 'Board Games' (Level 2). The passage includes an illustration of a family playing board games and several paragraphs of text with icons: 'Playing board games is a hobby. People can play board games at anytime with friends or family. You can buy board games in a store or online. Most board games include a board, pieces, and either a spinner or dice. Playing board games is a leisure activity.' Below the passage is a comprehension worksheet (Level 3) with a 'Name:' field and a graphic organizer. The graphic organizer has a central oval labeled 'BOARD GAMES' connected to three boxes: 'MAIN IDEA', 'DETAIL', and 'DETAIL'. To the right of the worksheet are a pair of green scissors and a blue and orange Elmer's glue stick. At the bottom, there are three small cards with icons and text: 'Most board games include a board, pieces, and either a spinner or dice.', 'Playing board games is a hobby.', and 'You can buy board games in a store or online.' A third card shows an illustration of people playing board games with the text 'People can play board games at anytime with friends or family.'
